

The airwaves are the people's not the commission's and not powerful, individuals and corporations - please keep the current rules and find a process that allows citizens to be part of the conversation for future changes.